YOUR CHANCE TO SECURE OLD COPIES OF THE PROCEEDINGS

THE Columbia University Press is offering at special sale (fifty cents per volume) the surplus stock of the old volumes of the Proceedings now on hand so that school libraries, public libraries and individuals who wish to complete their files or to start a file of the Proceedings with the volumes from previous years may do so. Volumes are available for all years beginning with 1920 and through 1936 with the exception of 1924 and 1935. The supply of these two volumes has been exhausted. Here is a real opportunity to increase your professional library or to start a file which will have increasing value in the years to come. Requests for further information or orders should be sent directly to the Columbia University Press, 2960 Broadway, New York City. It will facilitate matters if you send the check covering the bill at fifty cents per volume with the order. Postage is paid by the publisher.

HOUSING BUREAU

A HOUSING BUREAU will be maintained at the Information Service, Conference Headquarters, at the Auditorium during the annual meeting to make adjustments if possible where hotel accommodations prove unsatisfactory or to take care of those who come at the last moment without any hotel reservation. You will save yourself time and energy if you need this service by coming directly to the Housing Bureau at Conference Headquarters.

YOUR SUGGESTIONS FOR NOMINATIONS

THE chairman of the Conference Nominating Committee, Leonard W. Mayo, School of Applied Social Sciences, Western Reserve University, 2117 Adelbert Rd., Cleveland, Ohio, earnestly requests that members of the Conference send in at once their suggestions for nominations for President, First, Second and Third Vice Presidents, and members of the Executive Committee. The Nominating Committee will report at the meeting in Atlantic City. These nominations will be up for election at the meeting of 1942.

The chairmen of the various Section committees, as listed below, would greatly appreciate any suggestions which any member of the Conference may have for officers or members of the program Section committees. It is only as Conference members send in such suggestions to the various nominating committees that they can be fully aware of social work leadership that is developing in all sections of the country. The chairmen of the Section nominating committees are as follows:

Section I—Social Case Work: Alice Taggart, Community Service Society, 105 E. 22 St., New York City.

Section II—Social Group Work: Margaret Williamson, National Board of Y. W. C. A.'s, 600 Lexington Ave., New York City.

Section III—Community Organization: George Rabinoff, Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds, 165 W. 46 St., New York City.

Section IV—Social Action: Mary Dublin, National Consumers League, 156 Fifth Ave., New York City.

Section V—Public Welfare Administration: Marietta Stevenson, American Public Welfare Association, 1313 E. 60 St., Chicago, Ill.

VOTE FOR OFFICERS

THE official ballot for the election of officers and members of the Executive Committee and the officers and members of the Section Committees has been mailed from the Conference office to all members of record who are entitled to vote or who will become entitled to vote upon the payment of the current membership fee. The ballots may be returned in the ballot envelope to the National Conference office at any time prior to May 22. After that date, they may be mailed to the Conference office at Atlantic City, in care of the Ambassador Hotel or may be deposited at the registration desk at Conference Headquarters until 5:00 p. m. on Tuesday, June 3, at which time the polls officially close. Mrs. Mary Clarke Burnett of Pittsburgh, Pa., is chairman of the Committee of Tellers.

THE ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING

THE annual business meeting of the Conference will be held on Thursday, June 5, at 4:00 p. m. in the ballroom of the Convention Hall, Atlantic City, N. J. Reports of various standing committees, the proposed amendments to the By-Laws and any other business that should come before the business session will be on the agenda. Be sure to save this time for the business meeting.

PLACEMENT SERVICE

THE Social Work Vocational Bureau, 122 East 22 Street, New York City, which provides a national placement service in the social case work field, will have representatives of its staff at the National Conference this year. S. W. V. B. is a membership organization with no placement fees.

Case work agency executives and social case workers are invited to visit the Booth and consult the Bureau representatives about Bureau membership and placement opportunities.

ATTENDANCE FEES

ALL persons attending the annual meeting are required to register at Conference Headquarters and secure an admission card by the payment of the appropriate attendance fee. The "admit" card must be shown at the door for admission to all program meetings (except breakfasts, lunches, dinners and General Sessions) held throughout Conference week. The attendance fee is not a membership fee and is paid only at the time of registration at Conference Headquarters in Atlantic City. Please do not mail it in advance.

The schedule of attendance fees is as follows:

Conference members
Designated representatives of member agencies	$1.00
Non-members

Student attendance: Full-time graduate and undergraduate students particularly from schools of social work may register by the payment of a $1.00 attendance fee regardless of membership providing they secure from their instructor or dean the proper certificate in advance of the meeting. A supply of certificate blanks should be secured by the instructor from the Conference office with instructions for issuing by May 1.

One-day attendance: For those who can attend only one day there is a one-day fee of $1.00.

Be A Conference Member

YOUR Conference is a membership organization. It is supported by its members and its service to all social work is possible because of its members—regular, year-in-and-year-out members. You and your agency should be members if you are not now. For personal members, the annual fee is $5 ($3 if you do not wish the Proceedings). For agencies the annual fee is $25—Institutional, or $10—Sustaining. All members receive the Conference Bulletin and the Proceedings (except as noted above). Agency members may register members of board or staff at the annual meeting with the $1 attendance fee (see next column)—Institutional members, five; Sustaining members, two.

By being a member you not only support your National Conference but establish your right to vote (beginning with the second year of membership) for officers and on questions of policy. You belong—you participate. If not now a member, please use the blank below—now.

According to the policy of rotating the annual meeting in different predetermined areas of the country, invitations are in order for 1943 from the eastern half of the middle-west, namely, the territory from Buffalo to Pittsburgh west to Detroit and Indianapolis and from Cleveland to Louisville. Detailed information regarding the requirements of the annual meeting of the Conference can be secured by writing to the general secretary at the Conference office in Columbus, Ohio.

Attending The Annual Meeting

Before leaving for Atlantic City—

Send for your hotel reservation. A blank for your use is included in this Bulletin together with a list of the hotels and rates. If you should neglect to take care of this before arriving in Atlantic City, go directly to the Housing Bureau located at Headquarters in the Auditorium where a reservation will be made for you.

Plan your attendance.

1. Study the preliminary program. The major part of this Bulletin is devoted to the preliminary program of the annual meeting. Study this carefully so that you will have some idea of the meetings you will wish to attend, keeping in mind that there may be some changes between the publication of the preliminary program and the time of the annual meeting.

When planning which meetings you wish to attend, remember you can't possibly go to all meetings any more than you can eat everything on a menu. If you and a co-worker are attending the annual meeting and there are two programs in which you are interested scheduled at the same time, you might each attend one of these meetings and then report the main points to the other. Plan also to attend certain meetings which promise to have value for your own agency and be prepared to report to a staff or board meeting when you return.

2. Consultation Service. Included in this Bulletin is a list of the national agencies who are offering consultation service at the annual meeting which often is one of the most valuable parts of the Conference. If you have a particular problem that you would like to talk over with a specialist in a particular field which is represented in the consultation service, don't miss the opportunity afforded at the annual meeting.

Upon Arrival in Atlantic City—

1. Go to the hotel where you have your reservation and get settled.

2. Go to Conference Headquarters in the Auditorium, register, pay your attendance fee and secure your copy of the final program. (The attendance fee is $1.00 for members, those registering on agency memberships and accredited students in schools of social work and $3.00 for non-members.)

3. Find a quiet spot where you can sit, read and think.

4. Study your program and decide which meetings you want to attend. When doing this remember:

a. You can't attend all meetings.

b. If you go to too many meetings, the same thing will happen to your mind as happens to your digestive system if you eat too much.

c. If you sample meetings, you will leave the annual meeting feeling you have accomplished nothing.

5. When you have decided what luncheons or dinners you are attending, go to the ticket booth (located in the Auditorium) and buy your tickets. This assures you of a place at the luncheon or dinner and enables the hotel to prepare for you.

6. Take advantage of the consultation service which is in the Auditorium. Assembled there are representatives of more than fifty national and state organizations who will be glad to discuss their work with you or talk over any difficulties or plans that you may have that are in their field of social work.

7. Read the Daily Bulletin. This will keep you up-to-date on new meetings scheduled and changes in the program. These are distributed at the evening General Sessions or may be secured the following morning at Information Service (located at Headquarters in the Auditorium).

8. Information Service. If you have any questions and do not find the answers in your program, ask at Information Service (located at Headquarters in the Auditorium). If they do not have the answer, they will try to find it for you. Some of the things they will be able to tell you are:

a. Where people, who have registered, are staying.

b. Where to go for recreation.

c. What local social work agencies to visit and when visitors will be received.

9. Make friends. The annual meeting offers the opportunity of meeting and talking with the people in your profession from other communities and enables you to see and know the leaders in social work from the entire country. Save time to make friends. Succeeding Conferences will mean more to you.

FIND the answers at Conference Headquarters, located in the Auditorium, where consultation service is provided. The following national agencies in specialized fields of social work and publishers of social work literature will be represented there. You will find this consultation service of utmost value.

Conference officers and those in charge of housing in the Conference city are anticipating an unusually heavy registration at the 68th Annual Meeting. The demand for rooms already is exceeding earlier expectations.

In mailing your request for reservations, it is suggested you use the application form printed below. Designate the hotels of first, second and third choice. Your first choice will be granted if possible. Send the application to the Convention Bureau at Atlantic City. You will receive confirmation of your order from the hotel in which your room reservation is made.

The Ambassador Hotel has been selected as headquarters for the National Conference of Social Work.

With the supply of single rooms rapidly diminishing as a result of numerous advance registrations, the Housing Bureau suggests that, insofar as possible, delegates plan to engage double rooms and share them with roommates.

The Housing Bureau can assume responsibility only for reservations made through its office and in hotels specified for Conference use.
